Preface

Having attempted compilation and translation of the Essence of Aapastamba Dharma Sutras, the present Essence of Grihya Sutras is being attempted.

The Dharma Sutras detailed Vidyarthi dharmas and the second is devoted to the Grihastha Dharmas. The former dealt with Vidyarthi their veshabhaashaas- shubhrata- aashrama- bhojananirnayas- brahmacharya- Gayatri / nithyaagnikaaryaas- Guru shushrusha-saanghika pravartana- vedapathana- sikshana- guru bharyaputraputrikavyavaharana- swaadhyaya- saanghikapravartaana- and finally brahmacharyaashrama nishkramana. Then would detail grihasthaashrama duties-vivaha- streesangama- grihanirvahana-bhojananirnaya-atithiseva- swaadhyaya- nithyadhaarmika pravritti-daana dharmas- dhanaarjana- putraputrika nirvahana- vamshapaaramparya and saanghikakartavya- rajyangakartavyas- nyaayaadhedeshakartavyanirvahana-maataapitruseva- sodara-sodarisabhyatas- bandhusnehakaryaas- pirtutatpanavidhis and so on followed by vaanaprastha-sanyasadharmaacharana.

Now, the Grihya Sutras seek to explain Achaara Lakshanaas, Yagjopaveeta Karmaacharana, Naimittika Karmas, Agni Parishechana, Paaka Yagjna, Vivaha Karyacharana including Vara puja, Kanyaavarana, Paanigrahanavidhi, Agni Pradakshina, Vadhu Prasthaana, Garhapatyagni vidhana, Vadhu Griha Pravesha, Sthaaleepaka Vidhi, Stree Yagjna Vishaya Niyama, Pari Patni Triraatrivrata, Pati Patni Shayana Vidhi, Ritikaala Niyamaas- Brahmana Kshatriyadi Upanayana, Upanayana Brahmana bhojana, keshavapanavidhi, Mekhala-Charma dharana, Upanayanaahuti, Saavitri Mantra Daana, Danda dharana, Brahmachari Upadesha, Utsarga Maarjana Karma- Samaavartana Snaana-aahuti-mouna niyama. Then a retrospective of seemana-pumsavana-putropatti-jaatakarma-tila snaana-naamakarana-annapraashanna-choulakarmagodaana karma. Then would follow Grihya sammaana vidhis- sthambhasthaapana, grihaabhimantrana, vaastoshpati aahutis, abhichaara-sarpaadibali, Kshetrapati sthaalipaaka- maasika/ shraaddhakarmaas- brahmana bhojanavidhis-annaahuti krama, yatraa mantras and such.

The under- current of the present Essence of Aapastamba Grihya Sutras is related to nityayagjna karmas such as seven Paaka Yagnas- Aouposhana Homaas- Vaishvadevaas-Ashtakaas- Maasi / Saamvatsarika Shraadhhas-Sarpa balikaryas, and Ishaanabalis. To the extent possible efforts are being made in this Essence to cover the applicable mantras from the Mantra Prashna Grandha or Taittiriya Samhita as per the relevant contexts of the Grihya agnikaryas. Besides, explanations and vishleshanas have been sought to be included from Purana- Upanishad Grandhas, while taking care of undue repetitiveness from the Essence of Aapastamba Dharma Sutras as attempted earlier.

Indeed I am beholden to me and my family members to the Acharya Parampara of Kanchi Math as we have extraordinary links especially from Maha Swami onward. The present HH Vijayendra Saraswati has been unfailing ever to pro actively tune me up and personally guide me for countless translations into English of the age old Hindu Grandhas for world wide awareness.

It is with humility that I seek to prostrate to the Acharyas and dedicate my squirrel like efforts of the gigantic setubandhana.

ESSENCE OF APASTAMBA GRIHYA SUTRAS

Patala One-Khanda One

1. Athakarmaanaachaaraadyaanigrihyant/

Following is about 'karmaacharanavidhivivechanajnaana' of households both by way of Veda Lakshana and AacharaLakshana. Be this clarified that what had been established by Shrutis be no doubt the basics yet however as per 'achaaravyavahaaraas' might deviate as per 'desha-pradesha- kaalaparisthitis'. Hence the usage of the 'athashabda' or as of the present times. That is why the shrouta karma vyavastha and smaarta karma prayoga. Be it noted that nitya Yajna Karmas vary by 21 ways and means such as seven paakayajna- aouposhanas-homas- Vaishvadevaas-Ashtakaas- Maasishraadhhas-Sarpabalikaryas, and Ishaanabalis. Then there are seven kinds of Haviryajnaas viz. Agnihotra- Darshapuramaasa-Aagraayana- Chaaturmaasya-Nirudhapashubandha- Soutraamani- PindapitruyajnaaadiDaveerhomaas. Then there are seven Soma samsthitayajnas viz Agnishtoma, -Atyagnihoma- Ukthya-Shodashi- Vaajapeya-Atiraatra- Aaptoryaama. Hence the Aachara-Utpatti krama.

2. UdJayana purvapakshaahpunyaaheshukaaryaani/

'UdJayanairdeshtakaaryaas' or the rituals be all properly executed during the UttaraayanaPunya Kaala of Six Months as Surya travelstravels from Capricorn to Cancer, i.e. from south to north as His northward journey from winter to summer solstice consists of three seasons of winters, springs and summers starting on January 14 on the occasion of Makara Sankranti and ends at Karka Sankranti (July 16). Dakshinaayana is the period when Sun travels back from North to South; i.e. from Cancer to Capricorn. Due to the southward direction of this journey of Sun, we call it Dakshinayana when one experiences see rains, autumn, and winters of each year.

3-6: Yagjnopaveetinaa/ Pradakshinam/ Purastaadudgropakramah/Tathaapavargah/ May the Yagjpaveeta be suspended over the left shoulder and the samakaaryanirvahana be from left to right and beginning should be made on the east side or on the north side and also the end.

7-11: AparapakshePitryaani/ Praacheenaaveetinaa/ Prasavyam/ Dakshinaatopavargah/ Nimitthaavaaksheninaimitthikaana/ In respect of PitaraCeremonies relating to the Ancestors as performed in the second fortnight viz Krishna Paksha sacrificial thread be draped over the right shoulder aspraacheenaaveeti from right to left ie ending in the south. Those ceremonies occasioned by special occurrences be performed according to heir occasions demand.

The preparation of the kushaas as the 'purifiers,' the measure of their length, the preparation of the Prokshaajya, and the sprinkling of the vessels are the same here as at the Agni karyaas on the Maasapournamior the new and full moon, but are performed in silence. To the west of the fire the karta would pour water into a vessel over which he has laid two kushas called as purifiers, three times with two northward-pointed purifiers, holds it on a level with his nose and mouth, places it to the north of the fire on Darbha grass, and covers it with Darbha grass. On the south side he causes a Brahmana would be seated on Darbha grass.He melts the Aajya, pours it, to the west of the fire, into the Aajya-pot, over which he has laid two purifiers, draws coals (out of the sacrificial fire) towards the mirth, puts (the Aajya on them, throws light on it by means of a burning (grass-blade), throws two Darbha points into it, moves a firebrand round it three times, takes it from the fire towards the north, sweeps the coals back (into the fire), purifies (the Aajya) three times with two northward-pointed purifiers, moving them backward and forward, and throws the purifiers into the fire.

Darvi is that 'paatra' or the vessel with which the karta seeks to offer 'anjali' to Agnijwaalaas along with kushas known as the samarjanakaarya. In otherwords, he warms at the agni the implement with which he would seek to wipe off the darbha blades, warms the darvi again and touch the kushaagraas once again and would make the offering of the 'aajya' to the flames.Ishti and SthaalipaakaPrarambhanirnaya: The Ishti and Sthaalipaaka Yagnas described as above are required to be done in 'Purna Maasa' or the Shukla Pahshas only and not on Darsha Shradda Day. However Darsha Purna Karmas are initiated after the AadhaanaHoma (offering at the very beginning) and ‘Grihapravesthaneeya Homa’ or the preliminary Homa, then this has no objection. During the darshapurna month, there would be ‘pratitapana’, but this is normally performed inahavaneeyaagni. In fact ayyahoma has a darvi, in sthaaleepaaka there are two darvis, one for homa and another for ‘avadaanakaarya’ and both the darvis are used to ‘samarjana and pratitapana’. Now, about the ‘Paridhis’ the pieces of wood laid round the Agni and there are arranged for vivaaha, upanayana, samaavartana, seemanta, choula karma, godaana and prayaschittas. Now, the karta sprinkles water round the fire, on the south side from west to east with (the words), ‘Aditenumanyusvaa’ (May Aditi, give thy consent’ -on the west side from south to north ; ‘Anumatenumanyusvaa’ -‘Anumati Devi, give thy consent- on the north side from west to east and ‘Sarasvatenumanyusvaa’ - Devi Saraswati, do kindly give thy consent!’ and finally ‘Deva Savitahorasuva’ - sprinkle the waters all around imploring: ‘God Savitri, give thy approval! The jalaparishechana is to be done to agni but not to the paridhis. Now in respect of Pitru karmas, the parishechana by performed all around the Agni, silently but without praacheenaaveeti of the yagnopaveeta. Having put a piece of wood on Agni, the karta would offer the two ‘aaghaara’ homas with ‘indhanasamudaaya’ oblations as at the ‘darshapurnamaasayagjnas on the new and full moon, silently without mantras. Then he offers the two Aajyabhaaga oblations, over the uttaraardha’s purvaardha or northerly part of the easterly part of Agni with the words), ‘agnayeswaaha’; then over the easterly part of the southernly part, another oblation exactly like the preceding one, with the words, ‘Somaayaswaaha’. Having offered the chief oblations (belonging to each sacrifice) according to prescription, he adds the following thirteen oblations named anvaarabdhaayaamuttaraaaaahuti such as: Chittaschachittischaakutischa vigjnnayanchamanaschashakkareekscha darshaascha purnamaasascha bruhaaccharathaantaprajaapatijayaanindrayavrishneprayacchattaanajuhottatovaidevaasurasyamyataaas anbhyaasaIndrahprajaapatimupaadhavastasmaaetaanjyaanprayachhathaanajuhottatovaidevaasuraanja yanyadajayantijaayanachat -vagumspadamaanenaitehoyatvaajayatyavataamprutanaam/ Agnirbhutaanaamadhi patasyamaavatvindro jyeshthanaayai gummahaprithivyaavaayurantarikshisy Suryodivachandramaanakshatraanaam Brihasparirbrahmanomitryasysatyana gumvarunopang - samrajaanaadhipatitanmaavatu Somaasoshadheenaamadhi patinaagsavitaaprasavaana angrudrahpushuunaan -twashshaarupadhaarinyagvishnuh parvataanaam marutoganaanaamadhi - patayastemaavantu pitarah pitaamahahparevaretataastataamaa ha ihamaavatabrahmannasmismin--/ Ritaashaadrutadhaamaagnir -gandharvastasyaishadhayopsarasaetaan juhuyaadbhyataanairevadhaa - megni vide Taittireeya Samhita 3-4-4 to 3-4-7. These oblations are for viz. the Jaya, Abhyaataana, Rashtrabhrithand to Prajapati, with Vyâhritis one by one- Bhuhswaahabhuvahswaahbhurbhuvaswaaha to Agni and finally with Svishtakrit with the following mantras :yadasyakarmanotyareerichamyad - vaanyunamihaarakaram/ agnishtitvikrishtishtakridvansarvamsvishtanmsuhrutamkarotuswaaheti/’What I have done too much in this ceremony, or what I have done here too little, all that may Agni svishtakrit, as he who knows, make well sacrificed and well offered:’ Svaaha.’ Then ‘agniparishechana- all around be performed with the ‘aditemanvamasyaa---and deva savitahprasaavah’ and leave the jalaprokshana.

Now the reference for ‘Paakayagjna’ as used for ‘loukikajeevana’ like auopaasana- homaceremonies connected with worldly life. These are rituals based on the ‘Brahmanaadhaaravidhipaalana.’ In this context, havanas are performed twice, marjana or wiping off the hands twice; aahuti-praashanas be performed twice, and two sips and licks out of the sruks twice over. In othrewords, the kartasacrifices twice; he wipes off his hand twice; he partakes the sacrificial food twice and so on. ShishiraRitu of Maagha and Phalguna and GreeshmaRitu be women what ceremonies are required by custom. Even under the ‘Invakaas’ or Mrigashira Nakshatra, those relatives or friends of prospective bridegrooms seeking to approach the father of a prospective bride’s hands are welcome.

Under the Maghanakshatra cows are provided while under the Phalguni nakshatra, marriages are celebrated. In arshavivaahaas a father used to count a kanya as being of two cows. During phalguninakshatra whom the father would wish his daughter to be dear to her husband and thus should give her in marriage in such a manner that she would seldom return due to roga-daridrata and such reasons; some surely this is stated to be an observance based on Taittiriya Brahmana 1.5.2-3 indicating physical limitations as the trunk of the body viz. legs-hands-heart and head are vulnerable.(The Brahmana states the vyahrutis of bhur-bhuvah-swaha indicate the trunk of the body then the limbs being as follows: 'bhu being legs-bhuvah being hands and swaha as the head!). Then the referenve could be the Mrigasiranaksaktra; the word Nishtyaa means Svaati nakshatra. At the wedding one cow in the house should prepare for an Argha reception for the bridegroom as for a revered guest, and another to the bridegroom .Be this noted that a bridegroom desist from wooing a girl that sleeps, or cries, or has left home. And let him avoid one who has been given to another male, who is guarded by her relations, and one who looks wicked, or who is a most excellent one, or who is like a vrishabha or sharabha with unrepresentable teeth, a hunch-back, a girl of monstrous appearance, a bald-headed girl, a girl whose skin is like a frog, a bhoga vilaasini given to sensual pleasures, or one who has too many friends, or who has a fine younger sister, or one whose age is too near to that of the bridegroom.

Brides whose names be of a Nakshatra, or of a river, or of a tree, are objectionable too. If possible, he should place the following objects hidden before the girl, and should say to her, even touch her hands..The objects are of different kinds of seeds mixed together, loose earth from the kind of sacrificial altar called vedi, an earth-clod from a field, cow-dung, and an earth-clod from a cemetery. If she touches one of the former objects, this portends prosperity as characterized by the nature of what she has touched. Indeed the last is regarded as objectionable. Let him marry a girl of good family and character, with auspicious characteristics, while she be convinced of the prospective bridegroom of good health, learning and of pleasing personality. A wife who is pleasing to his mind and his eyes, will bring happiness to him; let him pay no attention to the other things: such is the opinion of many.

Now may 'sahrudayas' and 'shrutaadhyayanasaampanaas' be requested to assemble to identify a suitable bride. Having approached her at her residence, may the prospective bridegroom party approach the residence of the prospective bride and recite the 'Prasugmantaadi' mantras: Prasugmantaadhiya saanasysakshanivarebhirvaanabhisudpraseedata, asmaakmingrauhayamjujoshati---then evamgotraa - yaamusmaisahatvakarmabhyoyushmadeeyaamkanyaamvrineemahe/ (Mantra Prasna 1.1) Then in reply from the kanya's side would reply: Shobhanamtathaadaasyaama/ In practice, in brahmana-daiva vivaahaas, the Vara or the bridegroom be not present but only aasura or aarshavivahasvarepreshana be possible in which give and take talks might occur. When the bridegroom would himself view the bride, then the approaching braahmanas recite the next third mantra : 'abhratrudhveeneemityetaam-- meaning the groom himself be seeing the bride. The fourth mantra follows: adhoraachakshurupati '---thus the shubha samaya when both would glance each other. Then the thumb and the fourth finger of the reciter wear darbhaagraasaand wipe off the eyebrows of the bride reciting idamahamyaatwayi-- and discard the darbha. Further mantra follows in the context of the parents and close relatives might cry for the prospective departure of the bride, then the nimittamantra : 'jeevaamrudanto' as the latter would feel 'anyonyaviyogachintaarodana' and hence the 'mangala vachana japa' would follow. Further 'vadhupasnaanajalaas' be brought. Then five mantras for the vadhumangalasnapanavidhi with each of which ending with 'yugmaan' , and would recite abhratrughneemvarunaapo arighneem brihaspate indraputraghneemlakshyanaamasmaisavitassuva/ aghoracharavyashrapatignyedhishava - paribyasumanaasuvarchaah, jeevasuudaivakaamaasyonaashanno bhava dvipadeshchatuspade/as he would place a round piece of Darbha net-work on her head; on that, with the next verse: idamahamya - tvayi patighnalarishmastaamnirteshaami/ as he places a right yoke-hole; on this hole he lays with the next yajus mantra aryamnoagnim--svenasa--shamtehirantaami-hiranyavarnaa-paritvaagirvanogira-aashaasaane/ (Mantra Prasna 1.1) thus the karyas respectively by lifting a piece of gold, and washes her with the next five verses that the water runs over that gold and through the yoke-hole- he causes her to dress in a fresh garment, and with the next mantra , he girds her with a rope. Then he takes hold of her with the next verse armanyogagneem-- by her right hand, leads her to the fire, spreads a mat, west of the fire, so that he would point the kusha blades in it are directed towards the north, and on this mat they both sit down, the bridegroom to the north. Then further follows the mantra viz. Yatra kvachhaagni -- as the vadhu's right hand be held by the bridegroom , stand up and state the mantra pushaasvet-- and approach the homaagni. After the ceremonies have been performed by placing the wood on the fire down to the 'Aagyabhâga' oblations. Then he should take with his right hand, palm down, her right hand which she holds palm up. If he wishes that only daughters may be born to him, he should seize only the fingers (without the thumb); If he wishes that only sons may be born to him, the thumb. He would hold her hand so as just to touch her thumb and the little hairs on her hand with the four verses:

Hiranyavarnasshuchayah Paavakaah prachakramurhitvaavadyamaapah, shatampavitraavitataahyaa -

taabhishtavaadevassavitaapunaatu/ Hiranyavarnaasshuchayayah Paavakaahyaasujaatah kashyapoyaaavagnih, yaaagnimgarbhmadadhiresuvarnaa staastaaapassshaam syonaa bhavantu/Yaasaam raja varunoyatimadhvatesatyaanruteavapashyajjanaanaam, yaagarbhmadadhiresuvarnaastaastaaapassshamsyonaabhavantu/ aasaadevaadevaadivikrunvanti bhakshyamyaaantarishyabahudhaanivishtaah, yaaagnimdadhiresuvarnaas taastaaap - shhaamsyenaabhavantu/ (Mantra Prashna1.2-2)

Again, in the presence of Agni, the groom places his palm on his new wife's heart and prays, "Let our hearts and minds be one, let there be unanimity in our words and deed. May you be my companion forever." The bride's brother puts the laja (aralu) into her hands, the groom pours ghee onto it and they offer it to Agni. She also prays for the longevity of her husband and offers laja (aralu) into the yagna kunda. Aralu signifies good character, ghee represents friendship and love and offering it to the fire signifies a life of sacrifice. The bride then steps on a stone to show that she will remain unwavering and steady as a stone by her husband's side." This is called Ashmarohana. He would then make her steps forward with her right foot, to the north of the fire, in an easterly or northerly direction with the recitations.: The explanation is as follows: Athaagnerdoore -nottarataaara bhainaamdakshinenapadaa paadena praacheemudeecheemvaadishamabhipraagaayana -anyudagaayataa -nivaasaptapadaanira kramayatih 'ekamisheityaadibhihsaptabhi: 'Vishnustaanvetu' ityanushaktaih pratimantram/ As the seventh step of the Sacred Fire as the bridegroom addressing the bride : Sakhaa Saptapade-- saptamampadamupasamgruhe/ Priyatama! Let us perform the sacred homa-japa now celebrating our SAPTA PADI PARIKRAMA. Thus the groom holds his bride's hand and they walk around the sacred fire seven times making seven promises to each other with Agni as the witness. These are: 1. With the first step, we vow to provide sustenance for healthy living 2. With the second step, we vow to strengthen our physical, mental and spiritual powers 3. With the third step, we promise to attain prosperity righteously 4. With the fourth step, we vow to acquire knowledge, happiness and harmony by mutual love, respect, understanding and faith 5. With the fifth step, we vow to raise happy, healthy progeny and pray that we are blessed with healthy, honest and brave children 6. With the sixth step, we vow to conduct our relationship with self-control of the mind, body and soul and pray for longevity of our relationship 7. With the seventh step, we promise to be friends who are true and loyal to each other for a lifetime. The completion of this ritual finally makes the couple husband and wife. Arundhati, Dhruva nakshatra darshana: Arundhati was an ideal wife- chaste, loyal and steadfast. Dhruva was uncompromising on his ideals and focused on his quest. To bring in the same qualities into their lives, the husband shows the wife Dhruva and Arundhati nakshatra.

Having gone before the homakarya around the homakunda as a pradakshina from left to right, the 'vadhuvāraas' be seated down in their former position, and while she takes hold of him, he offers the oblations :Somaayajanivideswaah, Gandharvaayajanivideswaah/ (Mantra Prashna 1.4.1) To Soma and Gandharvas, the acquirers of a wife, Agnaveswaah imam me Varunatatvaayamitannagnesarvanagne, swah--- thus each oblation with each Mantra. Then the bridegroom would cause the bride's right foot as padakramana on a 'shila' or a rock with a mantra to explain 'treading' and this act be done to the north of the homakunda. Further, he then causes her to 'spread under' Ārghya into her joined hands, and pours roasted grain twice into them, and sprinkles arghya over it twice. Some say that her sahodara would pour the grain into her hands. The bridegroom would tread that grain with the verse: Idamnaaree/ or 'this wife of mine' Having gone round the fire, with the right side turned towards it, with the next relevant three verses, he makes her tread on the stone as above. Thereafter the bharta along with the bharya would take up the sthaalipaakayagnya to Agni Deva, especially on pournamis and amavasyas. The wife husks the rice grains out of which this Sthālīpāka is prepared. There after the husband would have cooked the Sthālīpāka, and sprinkled 'ājya' there over and taken it from the agni towards the east or the north, and sprinkled the ājya over it while its being there near the fire as the ceremonies from keeping wood sticks as the ājyabhāga oblations are performed while she be touching him and hence the oblations of that Sthaalipaaka. The acts of 'upastarana' and 'abhidhaarana' or of the 'spreading under' and the 'sprinkling over' of ājya are done once as two 'Avadaanas' or of cut-off portions are taken. 'Agni Devata swaahapradaana' be the first oblation or the pradhamaahuti uttering Agnayeswaaha, Agnayeswishtkriteswaaha/. In other words, the sacrifice be performed after having picked out once a portion of the sacrificial food with the Darvi spoon twice. The Avadaana for the first deity be taken out of the middle of the Sthālīpāka. It is offered over the centre of the Homagni. The Avadaana for the second devata be taken from the northern portion of the Sthālīpāka.. It is offered over the north easterly part - ishanya-of the agni jwaalaas. In the shrouta karmas, small parts of the 'barhis' as dipped in ājya from the sthalipaakabe silently anointed as prastaraas in the flames. The requirement is to perform another sprinkling of waters around the agnikunda. Then he would give the remains of that sacrificial food with butter to a Brāhmaṇa to eat as the latter would venerate. To that Brahmana, the katra would like to provide a charity of a bull. In the same way, with the exception of the dakshina, they should offer a Sthalipaaka from then onwards, on the days of the new and full moon, after having fasted. Some say that a vessel full of grain be gifted away. From then onwards the kartashould offer morning and evening with his hand these two oblations to Agni and to Agni Sviṣṭakṛt of rice grains or of barley. The procedure of Sthalipaaka for various Devas be the same as it is stated that the first oblation in the morning would be sacred to Surya Deva with the swaaha mantra ‘Suryaayaswaaha’. The deities of the Vaiśhvadeva ceremony are the Viśhve-devas, and these ceremonies be too performed on full-moon days.

Following the wife's monthly dharma, the sambhogayogyaratris are stated as with an even number, from the fourth after the beginning of menstruation till the sixteenth night since the same would bring good offspring to them, if chosen. The select ratris are stated as of the 6-8-10-12-14 thereafter. In case of the karyasiddhi, if he sneezes or coughs while going about on business, he should touch water and should murmur anugrahamparivaham mantras viz. yathāprithivyagni garbhādyoryathendrena garbhineevaa - yuryathāadishaamgarbhāevamgarbhāmadadhaatite/ Vishnoshreshthenarupenaasaya traaryaam - gaveenyaam, pumaamsam garbhameedehidashamemaasisuutave/vide MP 1-13.5,6 especially in case linganiyamas be not followed properly and the characteristics thereof besides bad omens be experienced such as dussvapnas, amangalapakshiswaraas, and such as would warrant 'praaschitthaas'. Similarly, he should recite aaraatteagnirastvaaraat parashurstantutenivaatetwabhi varshatuswastitustuvans - pateswastimestuvanaspate/ namasshakrutssadegoshthamasi namaste astumaamaahimseesmigasi nasi vajro namaste astumaahemsih, -udgaatevashakunesaamagaayasibrahma putraivasavaneshushaamsasi, swastinasshakuneastupratinssumanāa bhava mantras. (MP.1.4. 7-9) In case, the father / mother of the just married woman would wish long married life of the new weds, then the latter should observe chastity through at least three nights and should prepare a Sthaalipaaka.. Then the ceremonies would commence 'vashikarana karma' be performed by the auposanaagni from placing samidhas in agni as Aajyabhaaga oblations, while the wife would hold of him, and the husband would perform the sacrifices of the Sthālīpāka the oblations till parishechana of ghritaanna and after performing the rites down to the sprinkling of water round homaagni by vishtakritvidhanaahutis and the remains of the sacrificial food with butter be given to eat to an even number of Brâhmanas, at least to two, and should cause them to pronounce wishes for his success. On the day following the vasheekaranakarya, the karta would announce the tithi nakshatras and vadhunaamanakshatraas and recite yadivaarunyasivarunatvaanish kronaamiyadi - soumyaasisomatvaanishkronaami/ while placing aushadhi plants as the wife would strew barley grains around the four sides of the agnikunda; the mantra's purport is: 'If you belong to Varuna, I redeem you from Varuna. If you belong to Soma, I redeem you from Soma. On the following day the wife should set the plants upright reciting imaamkhanaamyoshasheem veerudham balavattamaamyayaa - sapatneembaadhatyayaasamvartatepatimi--- and recite next three verses following uttaanarpane - subhagesahamaanesahasvatisapatneemeparaadhama patim me kevalamkrudhi--ahamasmisahamaanaa-upetadhaam/(MP.1.16.1-6) Then when they have gone to bed, embrace her husband with her arms, with the verse alluding to the word 'upadhaana' or put on. Thus the husband would ever be subject to her. By this rite) also a wife would overcome her co-wives, if any. For this same purpose she worships Surya Deva daily. If a wife is affected with over consumption or is otherwise sick, one who has to observe chastity, should rub her limbs with young lotus leaves which are still rolled up, and with lotus roots, with next mantras limb by limb and should throw away the leaves and roots towards the west: viz. udasou Suryoagaadudayammaamakobhagah, ahantadviduulaapatimabhasaarishva vishaamahih/ ahamketuraham murthaahamugnaavivaachaneemamedankjratum parissehaanaayaauvaachatet/ mama putraasshatruhanotho me duhitaaviraat, utaahamasmisanjayapatyrme shlokauttamah/ yenendroha - vishaakrutyaabhavahdyuttamahantadakeid evaasapatnaakilabhavam/ samajaishimimaaaham saptneerabhibhuvareeh, yathaahamasyaveerasyaviraajaamidhanasyacha/(MP. 1.17.1-6). Thus the wife's vaseekaranaby her husband; finally he should give the wife's garment which she had worn at the wedding to a Brahmana who would preferably be aware of this vasheekarana ceremony.

Bala vatu snaanaantaram, he would perform the vidhi of 'upasama -dhaana' or placing samidhas to agni along with 'aajyabhaaga-aahuti karma' with the mantra aayurdaaDevaa--- while the Vatu would place palaashasamithas to agni deva, and would make him tread with his right foot on a stone to the north side of the homakunda with the help of the aacharya. Then having recited revasteesosvaa--yaaakruntam--pareedamvaasah/ over a garment that has been spun and woven on one day, and has caused him to place on with further verses. Then mounjee dharana karvavya: mauñjīm mekhalām trivṛtām triḥ pradakṣiṇamuttarābhyām parivīyājīnam uttaramuttarayā/ Reciting two further mantras iyamduruktaa-- and would tie thrice around him, from left to right, a threefold-twisted girdle of Munja grass with the next two verses and givesa mrigacharma as his outer garment with another mantram*atrasychakshuh--/* To the north of the Agni kunda, the acharya would then spread out Darbha grass as he causes the vatu station himself with the next verse: aagnatraasamaganmahi and pours his joined hands as a 'anjali', full of water, makes him sprinkle himself three times with the next verses*amudraadurmi--* ; takes hold of his right hand with the next mantra agnishthehatamagrameet-- and make the vatu bu holding his hands with agnayetvaaparidadaami-- / devasyatnaasavituh/--/ Further the aachrya would let the vatu perform the prokshanbt himself with the mantras : devasyatnaasavituh--/ and murmur in low voice into his right ear with 'Supragjnaa mantras: 'may the offspring be blessed'.

(Explanation as follows: 'After the JaataChoula Karma either on the day or the previous, the Vatu should have 'AbhyanganaSnaana' and take his food with his mother [Some say along with his sister] customarily along with other Brahmacharis. There after, the father of the boy would make the Sankalpa: Asya Kumarasya Dwijatwa Siddhi dwaara Shri Parameshwarapreetyartham Jayatryupadesham - kartrumatpraachyaanga bhutam vaapanaadikarishye! (To seek Dwijatwa of this son of mine, may I pray to Parameshwara to bless him to perform GayatriUpadesha on his bodily purification by way of AngabhutaVapana or 'Mundana') ; this head-shaving ceremony be done in a manner that the 'Shikha' is retained as a tuft. On completion of the Mundana Ceremony, the Vatu is bathed, face-decorated with Kalyana Tilaka on the forehead, clothed by the designated Vastra-AngaVastra, Koupeena, Mounji Darbhaadi mekhala etc. and after Jyoti Puja on the predetermined Shubha Muhurta made to enter the Vedika as Purvaabhi Mukha (East-faced) to the Acharya. Once the screen in between the Vatu and the Acharya is removed, the Vatu would perform 'Saashtaanga Namaskaara' or Prostration and the Acharya would make the Vatu seated on his lap even while the Acharya and Brahmanas would bless the Vatu and his parents with 'Akshataas' on their heads).

As a balaka approaches an acharya that he would like to assume brahmacharya. Paraashara Smriti details Anupaneeta Dharmas as follows: Praagupanayatakarmaachaarakamavaadakaamabhaksha, tena mutra purushot- sargaadavaachamanaadyaacharonaasti/ Laghupataakahetulashunaparyushitocchi - shtaadibhakshaedoshabhaavah/ (Before the Upanayana samskara, a person might be in the practice of unbridled behaviour of speech, action, eating habits, lack of purification of body parts, ignoring blemishes of eating and drinking forbidden food like garlic- mix, left over and polluted food, casual way of speaking untruth, carrying tales, even meat meeting, contacting women in menses and keeping company with bad elements!) But now the boy himself once approached an acharya as the latter asked the boy :*ko naamaasi!*The other murmurs the rest of the Anuvāka: Brahmacharyamaagaamupamaanayasvadevena savitraaprastah/ ko naamaassyasounaamaasmi, kasyabrahmacharyaasoupraanasyabrahmacharyas - myasaavesahdevasuryabrahmachaaatee tam gopaayasamaamritaishatesuryaputrasadeerghaayissaha ma mrita, yaamswasimagnir vaayu suryaschandramaaaaponrusancharantitaamsvastimanusancharaasou/, and causes the boy to repeat the mantra adhyanaamadhyapatashreshthasyaadhvanah paaramasheeya/ (MP.2.3.26-29) --which are basically of asheervaada mantras. Then the Acharya would make the upadesha of 'tatsavituhu- varenyam' and so on by bits with each paada-aavritis as the vastu would repeat by vyaahriti after vyaahriti as follows: Om kaarah Swarga dwaaram, tasmaat Brahmadyeshyamaanah/ Having asserted thus the Pitru vachana as of the acharya would recite: Om bhuh tatsaviturvarenyam/ Om bhuvah bhargo dheemasya/ Om suvah dhiyoyovah prachodayat/ Om Bhuh tatsaviturvarenyam bhargo devasya dhededmahi/ Om bhuvah dhiyo yonah prachodayaat/ Om suvah tatsaviturvarenyam bhargo devasya dheemahi dhiyo yonah prachodayat/ (Explanation: Then, the brahmachari readies himself to do 'Praanaayaam' and recites Pranava while proposing the seven 'Vyahritis'(relevant expressions of Gayatri) viz. Om Bhuh, Om Bhuvah, Om Suvah, Om Mahah, Om Janah, Om Tapah, Om Satyam, Om tatsaviturvarenyam bhargodevasyadheermahi dhiyoyonahprachodayaat, Om Apo Jyoti rasomritamBharmaBhurbhuvatswarom/ simultaneously sprinkle drops of water on one's own head. Pranayama (Control of Prana) is performed by touching the nose by the thumb and second finger and air must be taken in slowly through the left nostril and sent out by the right nostril; inhalation is known as 'Puraka', retaining is 'Kumbhaka' and exhalation is Rechaka, the three tasks done by 1:3:2 ratio, completing one Pranayama. Then the 'Viniyogas' or attributions of Gayatri / Shiro Mantras are as follows: Gayatri Mantra -Omkaarasya Brahma Rishih, Devi GayatriChhandah, Paramaatmaa Devataa, Sapta Vyahriteenaam Prajaapatir rishih Gayatriushnik - anushtup Brihati Panktitrishtupjagatyahchhandaamsya AgniVaayu Surya Brihaspati Varunendra Vishvadeva Devatah/ (PraanaayamaViniyogah)Shiro Mantra -Tatsavituriti Vishwamitra Rishih Gayatrichaandah Savitaa Devataa ApoJyotiriti Sirasah Pajapatirishiyajuschhando Brahmagni Vaayu Suryaa Devataah/ (PraanaayaameyViniyoga. After the PranayaamaViniyoga, the vidyadhi has to perform Kara Nyasa and Anga Nyasa as follows: Kara Nyasa: Om Angushthaabhyaam Namah (Touch both the thumbs); Om Bhuh Tarjanibhyamnamah (Touch both thumbs with both fore-fingers); Om Bhuvah Madhyamaabhyaam Namah (Touch both thumbs with both middle fingers); Om Swaha Anaamikaa - bhyam Namah (Touch the thumbs with ring wearing finger); Om Bhurbhuvah kanishtikaabhyaam namah (Touch the thumbs with little fingers) and Om Bhurbhuvahswah karatalahastaabhyaamnamah (Touch both the back sides of the palms) Anganyasa: Om Hridayaa Namah (Touch the heart with right hand); Om Bhu Shiraseyswaha (Touch the head); Om Bhuvah Shikhayavashat (Touch the tuft); Om Swah kavachaaya hum (Touch shoulders with both the hands); Om Bhurbhuvaha netraabhyaamvoushat (Touch the eyes with respective hand-fingers); Om BhurbhuvahswahaAstraya phat (take the right hand behind the back and clap to rest it on left palm). After Pranayama as above, then Gayatri Avahana Sankalpa states: Mamopaattha Samasta duritakshayadwara Shri Parameswara preetyartham Praatah Sandhyaam - upaa sishye/ or Maadhyaahnikam Karishey/ or Saayam Sandhyaamupaasishey (May I begin to worship Goddess Sandhya in the morning/afternoon/evening by destroying all of my sins by the grace of Parameswara). In the morning Gayatri is in the form of 'Tryaikshari', Veda Maataa and Brahma Vaadini: Aagachhavarade Devi Tryaiksharey Brahma Vaadini, Gayatricchandasaam Maata Brahmayoney Namostutey; In the afternoon she arrives as Savitri by a vrishabha (bull) with white robes as Rudra Vaadini: Madhyaahney VrishabhaaruudhaamSavitreem Rudra yonimchaavaahayerudravaadineem; in the evening Gayatri appears mounted on Garuda as Sarasvati with crimson robes as Vishnu Vaadini :

Saayamtu Garudhaarudhaam Peetaambharasamaavitaam, SarasvatimVishnuyonimaahvayed Vishnu Vaadineem/ MP. 2.07.13018. After the Sankalpa follows Maarjanam by the Mantra: Aapohishta mayo bhuvah, tana oorjedadhaatana/ maheranaayachakshase, yovah Shiva tamorasah/ tasyabhajayateha nah/UsiteeravahMatarah, Tasma arangamamavah, yasyakshayayajinvath/ Apo janaayahta cha nah/ Om bhurbhuvasuvah/ (Aapohishtha: The Goddesses of Water indeed; Mayo bhuvah: are the causes of granting happiness; tah nah: Such Goddesses; MaheRamaayachakshasey : are Great and charming to view; oorjedadhaatana :provide nourishment ; sivatamorasah: most propitious bliss; UsitihMataraiya: like loving mothers; Bhajayatehayasyakshayaaya: make us worthy of that bliss; Jinvathatasmaa vaharamgamaamah :we go in for that bliss with great eagerness; Apo janaayata: may we be born in rebirth with pure knowledge].

Then after the upadesha, the student would reply: vridhamasou Soumye’/ the boy touches his upper lip : shyaavantaparyantaavoshthaavapusprushyaa- chaameta; then the next mantra karnaavrittarena/ the boy would recite brahmana aaneesthathus touch both of his ears. Then would follow ‘dandagrahana’ with the mantra sukshnavasruvasam-- The danda of a brahmana be made of palaasha wood, that of kshatriyas be made of the nyagrodhavriksha so that the downward-turned end of the branch would form the tip of the staff, that of a Vaishya of Baadara or Udumbara wood. Some state that the danda be of atree wood irrespective of ‘varna vivarana’ of the dwijas: yadi varna samyukahkalpahprakraantah sa evaa samaavartanaatkartavyah/ Subsequently the acharya would make the brahmachari the blessing with the ‘paatha,’ stating ‘smritanchame ---as the vidyardhi would reply tacchakshurdevahitam-- thus the acharya would bless the brahmacharistating ‘Up with Life!’ and the brahmachari would worship Surya Devawhereafter the guru would bless the student stating the mantra that let him not be estranged from me! Then the upanayana samskaaraagni be retained for three days and during those days, salted and pungent food should be avoided. Thus follows samidhadhaananaprakriya by the vidyardhi having wiped his hands wet around the fireplace and recite the mantras Yatteagnitejah--paritvetiparimajya/ Dharma Shastras assert: Samidvaamagnim paaninaaparismuhenna samuhanyaa/ Hence the upanayanaagni be eventually rekindled with fresh samidhaadhaana. By reciting further instructions, the acharya would instruct the vidyardhi of his further duties such as kevalajalaaharagrahana, bhikshatana, dinaantanidratyaaga , guru-agnapalana for three days and nights. On the fourth day the acharya would himself replace the brahmacharivastras with nutanavastras, by reciting :yasyateprathamaavaasyam/

Once the formality of samaavartana or home coming be accomplished having spent gurukula nivasa for vedaadhyana, the brahmachari would be seated on mriga charma even before Suryodaya having taken his bath and having entered a cow shed planning about his future while the Sunshine be not too much yet. This is precisely as described vide Yagjnyavalkya Smriti stanza 1-51: Guravetu varam datva astroyaa dvaata - danugjnyayaa, vedam vrata nivaapaaram neetvaahyubhavamevavaa/ From brahmachari dharma to Vaivahika dharma is being stated: the dwijas having taken leave from the Gurukula, and having given away ample dakshinasa, the dwija seeks to enter the married life and would be on the look out for an eligible saha dharma charini. At noon time, after the ceremonies of Agni Upasamaadhana to Ahuti Karma with the mantra Imam stomam-- from placing palaashasamidhas into Agni and perform Aajyabhaagaoblations and sit down to the west of the homakunda and recite Vyaapushpam -- Shivonaamaasi-- over a razor, and hands it over to the barber with the next Yajus mantras: Tasmin keshaanupam - yotarayodumbaram uledarbhas tameva anidadhhati/ Thus the rites beginning with the pouring together of warm and cold water down to the burying of the tuft hairs are the same. He sits down behind the cow-shed, takes themekhalaor girdle off, and hands it over to a Brahmakarin who would hide it with the following yajus mantra- idamahamamushyamushya/. Then the karta would bathe in waters mixed with sugandhas while the next yajus mantra Somasyastanu urasi--apsarastuyogandhah/ With the next verse, he moves about a gold pellet with its setting, which is strung on a string, three times from left to right in a water-pot; with the next verse, he would tie the pellet to his neck; in the same way, without Mantras, he ties a pellet of baadarawood to his left hand, and repeats the rites with a fresh upper garment, with the verses, indicating richness to be filled up with. The garment's skirt be tied with the earrings, place them onto the darvi or the sacrificial spoon and offer oblations with a series of oblations with mantras aayushyamvarchasam--- followed by further oblations. Having performed the ceremonies down to the sprinkling of water round the agnikunda, he should tie one of the ear-rings with the same verses to his right ear, and with the relevant mantras to his left ear.. In the same way he should perform parishechana on the four sides of the agnikunda, place a 'pushpagucchha' on his head, place anjana on his eyes, look into a mirror, put on 'padarakshas' and take an umbrella and a staff. Further he should keep silence until he could find naksharas on the sky. When he would have 'nakshtrasandarshana', he would go away towards the east or north, and keep gazing the directions till worship the horizon till next day break and accompany his friends as he would please as buddhvaakarmaaniyatkaamaetata darabhete/ Hence the vidyarthi turned to youthful peeping in at the threshold of marriage would seek to the vidhayavidhikalpa with his buddhi would follow his destined yet dharmikamanastatva.

One method of samaavartana had been explained in the preceeding Khanda. Another method of a somewhat inferior kind would be to take the youth's pavitra snaana even an informal kesha khandana kaarya and quietly perform 'samidhaadhaana' with the least content of mantrocchaarana as that agni be fetched from a shrotrita's neighbourhood. The understandable comparison be that of a Raja and a Radhapati or the shrotriya of the neighbourhood and of the vidyarthi just having concluded samaavatana from the gurukula. The relevant mantras in the samidhaadhaana then be Raashtraburdasi samraadaa - sandee-- and Rashtrabhrudasyabhurdasyipannayaamandee/ Then the host shrotriya would make an announcement in a rather commanding instruction: 'do fetch water for washing the feet.' Then the guest would recite aapah padaavanejanee--- and thus having performed abhimantrana the right foot be washed. Having touched the person who washed the right foot with the mantra : mayee mahah, the host would touch his heart and would take the arghya in an earthen vessel reciting the next mantra: arhaneeya aapaa/ or herewith the 'arghya jala'. Then the guest should recite aamaagan--viraajo dehosi/ The remaining waters be poured out towards the eastern side stating Samudra cha/ At that time, some opine to gift the guest a pair of vastras, kundala dvaya, and a cow, and garland. The host would then pour madhu or honey, milk and curd - called 'Madhuparka' - in a brass vessel, covered with a larger brasscover holding with two bunches of 'kurchas' or grass and announce as the honey mixture. Madhuparka dravyaani trivritameke - dhrutamcha/ Some would seek to mix with ghee and some like to add grains and flours and honey in a brass vessel, covers it with a larger (brass cover), takes hold of it with two bunches of grass, and announces (to the guest), 'The honey-mixture!'. Some Acharyas opine five padaardhas adding grains and flour.

Ihaapipanchaaamsamdayahpangktum, dadhi-madhughritamdhaanaasyaktavahiti/Then ukttaraamyaa-bhintrya yajurbhyāmapa ācāmati purastādupariṣṭāccottarayā triḥ prāśyānukampyāya prayacchet/ The atithi would recite two mantras: trayye vidhaayai--aamaaganni/ thus having done abhimantra state: amritopastaranamasi, amritaapidhaanamasi/ thus perform 'aachamana'. *Shesham madhuparkapraashana shesham anugrahaaya putraaya bhraatre vaa samaavrittaayaiva prayacchet/*he should partake three times (of the food) and should give the remainder to a person towards whom he is kindly disposed. A king or a chieftain should only accept it and give it to his Purohita. Then the host would announce: here is a cow! Thereafter the guest being the ‘arghyavyakti’ would recite gourasyapahatapaapme and perform abhimantra while the atithi deva would caress the cow, spread aja all over its body with palaasha leaf and recite the next mantra: agnihpraashanaatu--mantras and perform havan. In case, the guest might choose to let the cow loose, he would slowly utter yagjnovardhataa-- and then loudly announce Omutsrujate/ Om! Let it lose. Then would follow Annanivedanam- In this situation, may the cow be given food along with five mantras: siddhennaamtishthanbhutamitiswaamedprabruyat-- Further, his acharya, or ritvija or father in law, or king should perform the arghya ceremony, since these as were referred to should normally visit his house but at least a year had elapsed and hence one of them be accorded the arghya karma. Thus the vidhana of the renowned host should duly perform the arghya karma - or the ‘madhuparka - arghya-anna - nivedana’ - vedakarya as enabled by a shrotriya pandita as the host to the guest being a youth who had just concluded his ‘samaavartana’.

Seemanthorayanasamskaara of a prathamagarbhini stree be duly celebrated by the fourth month of her conception. Seemanta is the partitioning ‘rekha’ of her head hairs. Seematounneeyateyasmin karmaani tat/ as the auspicious celebration of her first pregnancy in the fourth month. The husband would then serve food to brahmanas who would recite swasti vachanas and arrange ‘upasamaadhana’ of placing ‘indhanas’ to agni and offer ‘aajyabhaaga aahutis’ to the garbhini stree as the aahutis be along with the mantras: dhaataadadaatu norayimitichatustroyastvaahridaakeerineti chatusrahbhurbhuvassuvoraaka mahamyaaasteraake/ yougandarireva no rajetisaalveeravaadishuh, vivrittachakraa - aseenaastreerenayamunetava/ Somaevanoraajetyaahurbrahmaneeh prajaahvivrittachakra aaaseenaasteerevnaasoutava/ (MP. 2.11.1-8) being the four mantras respectively.. After the parishechana karma of sprinkling waters on all the four sides of the agnipeetha, the husband would make his wife to sit down to the west of the fireplace, facing the east and would part her hairs upwards from the beginning from a porcupine's quill which has three white spots, with three darbhas and a bunch of unripe udumbara fruits with three vyahritis of Bhuh-bhuvah-svaha followed by raakaamahamsuhavaam--yaasteraakesumatayah--/The the husband would address veenaa players to initiate the instrumental music. Thereafter two richas be recited viz. yougandhari --and Soma eva no raajaa-- be recited; these lyrics are to be played in the case of brahmana stree'sseemanta whereas in respect of kshatriya- vaishyastrees in the seematotsava the song would be Somo no Raajavatumanusheehprajaah---/ For brahmanas, the name of the river near by to their native place be tuned in. Then the husband would tie barley grain shoots to the wife's head and keep silent till the nakshatras would appear in the horizon. Once nakshatras would be visible, he would approach his wife towards the east or north, touch a calf and slowly utter the vyahritis of bhur-bhuvah-svaha along with his wife too doing so along with him and break the silence thereafter with the manrasyacchato--visrujata/. Thus the pumsavanasamskaara for uttamaputraprapti in the course of the third or fourth month after the garbhadaana. Seemantotrayana be celebrated in the fourth month of garbhadaana while pumsavana karma be preceded. The opinion of some would suggest that these samskaraas be performed for the first garbhadaana.

In performing the Seemantotrayanasamskaara too to place nyagrodhavrikshashakhaa facing eastward or northward be placed as aahutis to agni. Aapastamba Dharma Sutra in this context be recalled vide. 2.15.11: shucheenmantravatsarvakrityeshubhojyam/ Also the jala parishechanakarmaadis on the four sides of agnikunda too be not performed. Further the karta- bharta would cause a pre-puberty kanya be asked to pound the nyagrodha shoot on an upper millstone or a rock over another millstone and pour waters on it. Thereafter let the wife lie down on her back to the west side of the agni, face the east and insert the pounded substance with his thumb into her left nostril with the yajusmantra pumsavanamasi/ This action should be taken to assure putraprapti. Further, this ceremony be duly performed for safe and quick and timely delivery of the child. There after the husband would pick up a vessel thus unused thus far would draw a nearby riverfront water currents, place a turyanti plant near the wife's feet and sprinkle at her feet with the yajus mantra: yathaivasomahpavata--abheestavaahamdashabhirabhimrishaami--- and further sprinkle waters with tiladevapadyasva, niraityuprushnishevala/

[Vishleshana on Vaastu vide Matsya Purana

Initiating the Construction of Grihas / houses is considered the best in respect of the following NAKSHATRAS OR STARS: Ashvini, Rohini, Mula, the three Uttaraas, Mrigashira, Swati, Hasta, and Anuradha. As regards the DAYS, all the days of a week are good, except Sundays and Tuesdays. In regard to YOGAS, construction should not start on the following yogas viz. Vyaaghat, Shula, Vyatipaata, Atiganda, Vishkambha, Ganda, Parigha and Vajra. Following MUHURTAS are stated to be ideal for construction viz. Sweta, Maitra, Maahendra, Gaandhawa, Abhijit, Rouhini, Vairaja, and Savitri. To decide on the SHUBHA LAGNA, the activity of construction should be commenced when the Chandra bala as also Suryabala would be equally positive. The most important activities apart, 'Stambharohana' or the hoisting of the Pillar should be taken up first; similarly the procedures should be the same as in respect of the construction of Praasaads, wells and such mini water bodies. SOIL TEST would be the foremost activity before the actual construction is taken up. Sweta (White), Lal (Red), Peeta (yellowish) and kaala (black) may be the ideal soils for the Four 'Varnas' of Brahmana, Kshatriya, Vaisya and Shudra respectively. Taste-wise, the soil may be sweetish for Brahmanas, sour for Kshatriyas, 'tiktha' or bitter for Vaishyas and 'Kasaili' / Kashaya / Pungent for Shudras. As a part of the soil quality test, saplings are to be planted and the best soil quality would yield the growth over three nights; medium growth over five nights and minimal growth over a week. The best soil obviously would give out the quickest yield. By way of a diagram, the area meant for construction is drawn as a big square which is divided into nine squares while each square is further sub-divided into nine smaller squares, thus making a total of eighty one squares. Of these, thirty two Devatas are worshipped in as many sub-squares and thirteen Devatas from outside those sub squares, thus accounting for forty five squares. The names and the positioning of the respective Deities are: Shikhi, Parjanya, Jayant, Indra, Surya, Satya, Brusha, Antakisha, Vayu, Pusha, Vitatha, Brihatsakshatha, Yama, Gandharva, Bhiringraaja, Mriga, Pitrugana, Daivarika, Sugreeva, Pushpadanta, Jalaadhusha, Asura, Sessa, Paapa, Roga, Ahi, Mukhya, Bhallata, Soma, Sarpa, Aditi and Diti; these thirty two Deities are Baahya Devatas. These Deities are to be worshipped in the four Dik-konas like Ishaana. Now, outside the Vaastu Chakra the following four Deities are to be worshipped viz. Aapa, Savitra, Jaya, and Rudra. In the middle nine squares, on the four sides of Brahma, eight Sadyha Devatas are to be positioned and these are Aryama, Savita, Viviswaan, Vibhudha -adhipa, Mitra, Raajayakshma, Prithvidhara, and Apavatsa. Apa, Apavatsa, Parjanya, Agni and Diti-these are of five Devataavarga to be worshipped in Agneya-kona. Further, twenty Devataas are positioned in two rows: Aryama, Viwaswaan, Mitra and Pritvidhara-these four are stationed on three sides of Brahma in three, three positions each. This is the Procedure of worship to all the relevant Deities.

The methodology of construction varies from one building to another such as Chatuhshaala, Trishaala; Dwishalaetc. The Chatuhshaala is open from all four sides with gates /doors on all the sides, known as Sarvatomukha and is normally ideal for a Palace or a Temple. A building which has no door to the west is called Nandyavarta; without a door on the Southern side is called Vardhamaana; without a door on the Eastern side is called Swastika; and without an opening on the Northern side is Ruchaka. A King's Palace is ideally measured the hundred and eight hand-lengths, while that of a Prince has sixty six measures; a General's abode with sixty four measures; forty eight measures to forty eight measures; and thirty two for an ordinary citizen. As regards the 'Stambhas' (Pillar) in an ordinary house, its circumference is multiplied by nine times and the result must be the depth of the pillar underground; a four angled pillar is called 'Ruchak'; eight angled pillar is 'Vajra'; sixteen angled pillar is 'Dwi Vajra', thirty two angled pillar is 'Praleenak' and a pillar whose mid-region is round is called 'Vritra'. All the residential homes should be entered from the right side 'PraveshaDwar'. Entry from the eastern side where Indra and Jayanta exist is the best; in the southern side 'dwara', it is said that Yama and Vitatha are supposed to be ruling and is good too; on the western dwara, Varuna and Pushpadanta are prominent; Uttara dwar is governed by Bhallat and Sowmya and is quite propitious. But one should be careful of 'vedhas' or forced entries: for instance, such vedhas through side-lanes might result in 'Kulakshaya' or damage to the Vamsha; forced entry through trees might end up in mutual hatred of family members; vedha through mud would bring in sorrows; vedha through water ways would result in problems; vedha through pillars might end up through difficulties arising due to women. Entering from one house to another could end up in grief to the master of the house. A house which opens on its own might result in madness of a family member. Similarly, a house which gets closed on its own could end up in 'Kula naasha' / distress to the Kula. Entry through a very high door could lead to 'Raja bhaya' or difficulties on account of Authorities. If the door is too low, there could be 'Chorabhaya' or fear of thefts. A door just above another door could attract Yamaraja darshan. If a house with a main door of disproportionate size is built in the middle of a big road is made, the master of the house would not live for long. If the main door is smaller than the other doors of a house, that house might not have contentment and would be a constant abode of recurring predicaments. The rear portion of the house must be kept duly adorned with trees, foliage, pots and decoratives. The east of the house there should be 'Vata' vriksha; in the Southern side Udumbara tree and the western side Pippala Tree and Pluksha tree on the northern side. Nearby the house, trees with thorns and KsheeraVrikshas or milk-yielding trees are not good. It would be propitious to grow trees like Purnnaga, Ashoka, Shami, Tilaka, Champa, Dadimi, Peepali, Draksha, Arjuna, Jambeera, Puga, Panasa, Ketaki, Malati, Kamala Chameli, Mallika, Coconut, Kela, Kadali and Patala as these Trees are signs of Lakshmi / prosperity. Houses are better not built in the extreme vicinity of temples, Dhurtas or mischievous elements, General Administration, Four-Lane Centers, since there might be causes for irritation, fear and problems. Leaving ample space before, rear and sides of the building is a must. It would be advisable to have the southern part of the house elevated and such an abode is called a 'Sampurna' or complete from the Vaastu point of view and would thus bestow the best of advantages. To lay the 'AdharaShila' (Foundation Stone) of a building, the Priest should determine the 'Muhurat', decorate the Stone with white cloth, lay 'Nava Ratnas' and Gold along with Nava Dhanyas or nine varieties of appropriate seeds and with the help of masons fix up the stone, and perform 'puja' to Ganapati, Vaastu Deva, Ishta Devata or the Family Deity with formal 'Mantrocchaarana', also perform 'Havan' / homa to Agni Deva with milk, ghee and honey: The relevant Havan Mantra is: VaastoshpateyPratijaanee -hyasmaantswaaveshoanameevobhavaa nah, yattvemaheypratitanno jupuswa sham no bhava dwipatdey sham chatushpadey/

VAASTU YAGNA comprises: Sutrapath, Stambhaaropana or hoisting of the main Pillar, Dwaravamshocchraya, GrihaPravesha and Vaastu Shanti. Sutrapath takes place in the Ishana Disha and Stambhaaropana in Agneyakona. Vaastu Deva's 'Pada Chinhas' or foot prints should be set up and the 'Karta' should do 'pradakshinas' (circumambulation) around the foot-prints. It is stated that water with the powder of Munga, Ratna and Suvarna should be sprinkled while designing the 'Pada-Chihnaas'. Incidentally, the signs of Vaastu should never be ash, lit up firesticks, nails, skins, horns, bones, and skull as some ill-informed persons tend to do so and such material would lead to distress, danger and difficulties. It is advisable that masons and other workers are present at the time of GrihaPravesh.

This pattern of living would certainly assure excellent propitiousness and happiness to the entire family. [Vishleshana on Sarpas and Snake biteremedies vide Bhavishya Purana.

King Janamejaya would perform 'Sarpa Yagna' or Sacrifice of Serpents to avenge the death of his father King Pareekshit who died of the bite of Taksha the most obnoxious serpent following a curse of a Brahmana son of a Sage in meditation for an insult caused by the King to the Sage by hanging a dead snake around the Sage's neck. The intervention of Astika to stop the Sarpa Yagna of burning crores of poisonous snakes in the 'Homaagni' or the Sacrificial Fire was held on a Panchami Tithi Day when the Snake Vamsa was rescued and that was why Naga Panchami, the fifth day of Shravana Shuddha Fortnight came to be observed. Thus worship of poisonous Snakes on that day by way of washing and feeding them at their pits with milk as also performing formal Pujas with flowers, 'Dhup' by incense sticks, 'Arati' with camphor lighting or Oil-soaked cotton vicks, and Naivedya with 'Kheer' to the Serpent. Brahmanas recite Mantras like the following to protect the devotees: SarvaNagaahpreeyantammeyyeykechitPrithivithaley, yey cha helimarichisthayentareyDivisamstithah/ YeyNadeeshuMahanaga ye Sarasvati gaaminah, yey cha Vaapeetadagashuteshusarveshuvainamah(May all Nagas whether on Earth, Sky, Swarga, in the Sun rays, Sarovaras or lakes, wells or other water bodies, be appeased as we greet these deities again and again). After the formal worship, Brahmanas are treated by good food commencing with sweets and savouries and by 'dakshinas' or cash and gifts. The 'SarpaVrata' is best observed in the Panchami Tithis of all the months by worshipping the Twelve leading Snakes named: Ananta, Vasuki, Shankha, Padma, Kambala, Karkotaka, Aswatara, Dhrita Rashtra, Shankhapaala, Kaaliya, Takshaka and Pingala. Sincere devotion to Naga Devas by performing the Pujas would save the entire family of 'Naga Bhaya' or the Fear of Snakes as also of Snake bites to the entire generation of their lives. Nag Puja also bestows health, longevity, and great peace of mind. Sage Sumantu quoted to King Shataani the conversation between Maharshis Kashyapa and Gautama about the features, appearances and types of serpents: During the Jyeshtha and Ashaadha months, serpents tend to very aggressive and the male /female variety turns into mutual union. During the rainy season, the female snake conceives and remains pregnant for four months and during the Kartika month delivers two hundred forty eggs but by the dispensation of Mother Nature only a very few remain intact. The mother snake retain the eggs for six months and seven days after their emergence, the baby serpents assume black colour. Normally the life span of a serpent is twenty years but it is a known fact that every day there is a threat of life to the reptile from peacocks, human beings, chakora birds, cats, pigs, scorpions, as also by cows, buffalos, horses and camels which kill the snakes by their horns and feet. After a bite, its poison gets immediately gets replenished. A serpent has two hundred feet enabling tremendous speed in mobility but in a stationary state not visible. It has a mouth, two tongues, thirty two teeth and four extended teeth called makari, karaali, kaalaratri and yamaduti stated to signify Brahma, Vishnu, Rudra and Yama. There are eight reasons as to why a snake bites, viz. by way of hard weight, erstwhile enmity, fear, arrogance, hunger, speedy production of excessive poison, safety of its progeny and provocation. A snake bite is normally irrevocable causing death. But, depending on physical indications of the affected person, there certainly are 'Aoushadhis' which could do miracles! Seven Stages of physical features as per the speed impact of the poison after the snake bite: In the first stage of the speed effect, the indication is 'Romancha' or stiffening of body hair; in the second stage, there would be excessive sweating; in the third stage, there would be body shiver; in the fourth stage hearing capacity is affected; in the fifth stage, there would be hiccups or gulping sounds; in the sixth stage the neck gets dropped; in the seventh stage, poison gets spread all over the body. If eye-vision is diminishing and the whole body has a burning sensation, then probably the skin of the poisoned person is affected; a pounded mixture of 'AakJad', 'Apamaarg', 'Tagar' and 'Priyangu' in water should reduce the impact of the poison. Since blood flow into the skin pores is spreading poison, the person feels excessively thirsty and might even swoon and hence cold items be provided with a grinding of 'Usheer' / 'Khas', 'chandan',

'kuut', Tagar', 'Neelotpal', 'Sinduvaar Jada', 'Dhuterjad', 'Hing' (Asafoetida), and 'mircha' should help; if not: 'Bhatakatayya', 'Indranajad', and 'Sarpagandhi' should be ground in a mix and administered; if this mix is also ineffective, grinding of Sinduvar and Hing powder be given as a drink with water; these powders could also be used as 'Anjan' and 'Lepa'. If poison enters 'pitta' into blood, the patient jumps up and down, the body becomes yellowish, vision becomes yellowish too, the person gets thirsty and swooning; at this stage, a mixture of Peepul, honey, mahuva, ghee, 'thumbajad' and IndrayanaJad should all be ground together and along with Cow's urine made into a paste as powder, lepana and Anjana. If poison enters 'Kapha' due to Pitta, the body becomes stiff, breathing becomes difficult, throat makes sounds, and 'lar' comes out of mouth; then 'Peepul, mirch, sounth, sleshmataka of bahuvaravriksha/tree and lodh and Madhusara' should be mixed (grinding) and an equal part with cow's urine and used as a lepana /anjana. If poison enters Vaata with Kapha, the affected person's stomach gets bloated and vision gets blocked, then 'Shona (Sonagaachha) jad, Priyal, Gajapeepul, Bhaarangi, Vacha, Peepul, Devadaru, Mahuva, Madhusara, Sinduvara and Hing' should be powdered (grinding) in 'golis' and make the patient eat, as also use as lepana/anjana. If poison enters 'Mazza' due to Vaata, the affected person gets blinded and all body parts get disfunctioned, then a mixture of ghee, honey, sugar with Khas, anechandana be pounded and given as a drink, or administer its powder through inhaling. If poison enters majja to 'marmasthaan', all body parts fail and the body drops on the Earth; by cutting the veins blood is not shown, then the ultimate medicine prescribed by Lord Rudra would be 'MritasanjeevaniAuoshadhi' viz. Peacock Pitta and Marajarika Pitta, Gandhanadijad, Kumkum, tagar, kut, Kaasamarda'schhaal, Utpal, Kumud and Kamal all in equal parts along with Cow's urine be mixed (grinding) and use a nashya/anjana; by so doing Kalasarpa becomes a Hamsa (swan). Sage Kashyapa advised humanity through Gautama Muni, that recital of the following Mantra especially after sincerely performing Naga Panchami Vrata on the Panchami Tithis of Shravana Shukla, Bhadrapada Shukla as also Ashwin Shukla months viz. Om Kurukulley phat swaha. Recital of the Mantra is a Heavy Security Shield and no snake of any description would and could approach the devotee concerned.]

Your courage and intrepidity are so well recognised across the Worlds that even sudden spurts of enemies all around are faced by you with coolness and are not only subdued but extinguished for ever. Indeed You are the cynosure in the battle fields when you slit the throats of the dreaded opponents by the least possible exertion even as you dance and revel in their terminations by the least possible exertion. Our intense admiration for you TandavaMurtis! As You wield your sword with a powerful hold and enjoy the dance of bliss, One could never witness such a scene of ecstasy and mesme rise us we feel that you indeed are the Supreme Thief of our hearts and souls! Our heart felt salutations to You the outstanding Robber of Senses! Indeed, Bhagavan is of the Swarupa of the playful Chief of bandits, forest hunters and thieves who are observant and ready to strike; such robbers move about night-long and carry swords; they also wear turbans to hide their identity and move about mountains and jungles. Rudra Deva! You are an expert to release arrows and hit exact targets! Bhagavan! We seek to prostrate before you as you recline and relax! TandavaRudras! You are awake while asleep. You bear the personality of he who is on the run while standing still! Paramatma! You preside over conferences and peculiar occasions. Bhagavan! You are present in such odd places as salty and trampled , rocky and rough, and such others where none chooses to visit. Yet you rest with your matted hair as a headgear and appear relaxed before your devotees! You stay in go-shaalas and homes, reside in huge, deep jungles and impermeable mountain caves, through dust and hazy spots, alike in shrivelled deserts where no grass or greenery is in sight, on Earth or fathomless Oceans; you are with hordes of Rudra Ganas around you with piercing tridents and other dreadful weapons ready to attack and smash. But Bhagavan! You are fond of encouraging Devas in our heart and bless them in your Virat Swarupa; indeed they are blessed and get entrusted with their responsibilities of administering the affairs of the Universe! Parameshwara! You choose to be poor despite your being the origin of opulence! You expose us humans to miserable conditions devoid of food and such other bare needs of livelihood to us, children, domestic animals! Neelalohita! We do realise that you are dispassionate and impartial and we ought to suffer and deserve retribution from the store of our misdeeds; Yet, do kindly pardon us as you are our unique shelter. May our sins be destroyed as we do desire to initiate a positive account of our selves here onwards and be worthy of our devotion to you. We will indeed truly seek to follow the foot steps of Manu and seek to deserve our prostrations to you. But as of now, Bhagavan! Do not torment us, our elders, babies and our entire generation. We beseech you Rudra Deva the fierce and ruthless to the Evil; yet, you are Shiva too the embodiment of Shubha and Mangala-auspiciousness and fulfillment. Do also advise to Devas to give full consideration in our favour too to help us and fulfill our wishes. While we make sincere supplications to you Maha Rudra! when you as a youthful Lion ready to destroy, let not your Ganas attack us but the Evil Forces; instead you do bless us and our family members even as diverting your weapons far away from us! May those Rudra Ganas loosen the strings and their bows be taken off from us by thousands of yojanas! Rudra Bhagavan! You possess thousands of destructive weapons in your thousands of arms and indeed You command all of them; but let not the weaponry turn against our faces!)

Patala 7-Khanda 20 continued from 10 onward:

Having thus recited ‘Namaka Rudra’, the Karta would usher the group the cows around the Agni Peetha so that the cows could inhale the smokes of the Agni Jvaalaas of the Sthalipaaka. With his firmly shut fist full of Darbha grass he besprinkles them with scents; the bull first. He should perform a sacrifice to Kshetrapati, without a fire, in the path used by his cows. He has the Kshetrapati led to his place in the same way as Ishana. He would then place portions of boiled rice into four or seven leaves, naming Parama Shiva and he performed the homakarya, Bhagavan with excellent appetite would surely have accepted the same. Then with the next two verses, MP. II, 18, 47. 48, he would worship the Kshetrapatias Namonishanginaishudhimate, Ksetrasypatinaavamitidve/. Thus theSthaaleepakaof having venerated Ishaana Deva be given to the Brahmanas to eat as per the family custom.

Some opine the pindadana be after the ashtaka. Another method of the ashtaka sacrifice be performed with ‘dadhyaanna’ as in the case of pinda -anna cakes. Thereafter, if the karta had obtained a chariot with horses, he might arrange the horses fixed up the chariot face the east, touch them and the two wheels of the chariot, touch the horses place them on reciting the mantra :Angkounyangaavabhitivityeshaa/ vide MP. II.21.17 -18-19 and touch both sides of the chariot. Further mount the chariot with two wheels reciting: adhvanaamaddhva pateswastimaasampaaraya/ Aayamvaamashvinourathomaadhukhemaasukherishat, arishtarswastigacchatuvivighnapritanaayatah/ Having been seated, he would drive off towards the east or north on his own business. Now, instead of a chariot if he were to mount a horse only, the ashwaarohana mantras be recited as follows: Ashvosihayosyatyosinarosyavaarsivaassaptirasivaajya sivrishaasinrimanaaasi, yayurnaamasyaa -dutyanaam patvaanvihi/ MP. II.21,20-30. In the case of mounting of an elephant, the Karta would recite Hastiyashasamasibhuyaasam -vahkaalavaha shriyammaabhivah, Indrasyatvaavajrenaabhinid -dhaamyasou/ MP. II.21. 31. If any harm is done him by these two animals, let him touch the earth as indicated above. If he is going to a dispute, he takes anumbrella and a staff in his left hand.
